Storytellers from the Kansas City, Kansas Public Library entertained the second, third and fourth graders with great stories on Thursday, October 15. Several students were invited to join in the storytelling!!

On the following page are pictures of the Silver Rose Prayer Service. The fourth graders led us in song. The Knights of Columbus made this opportunity available to RCS. Father Harry and the students of Resurrection led the prayer service which included praying the rosary, scripture readings and a litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This was a wonderful experience for the entire student body.
